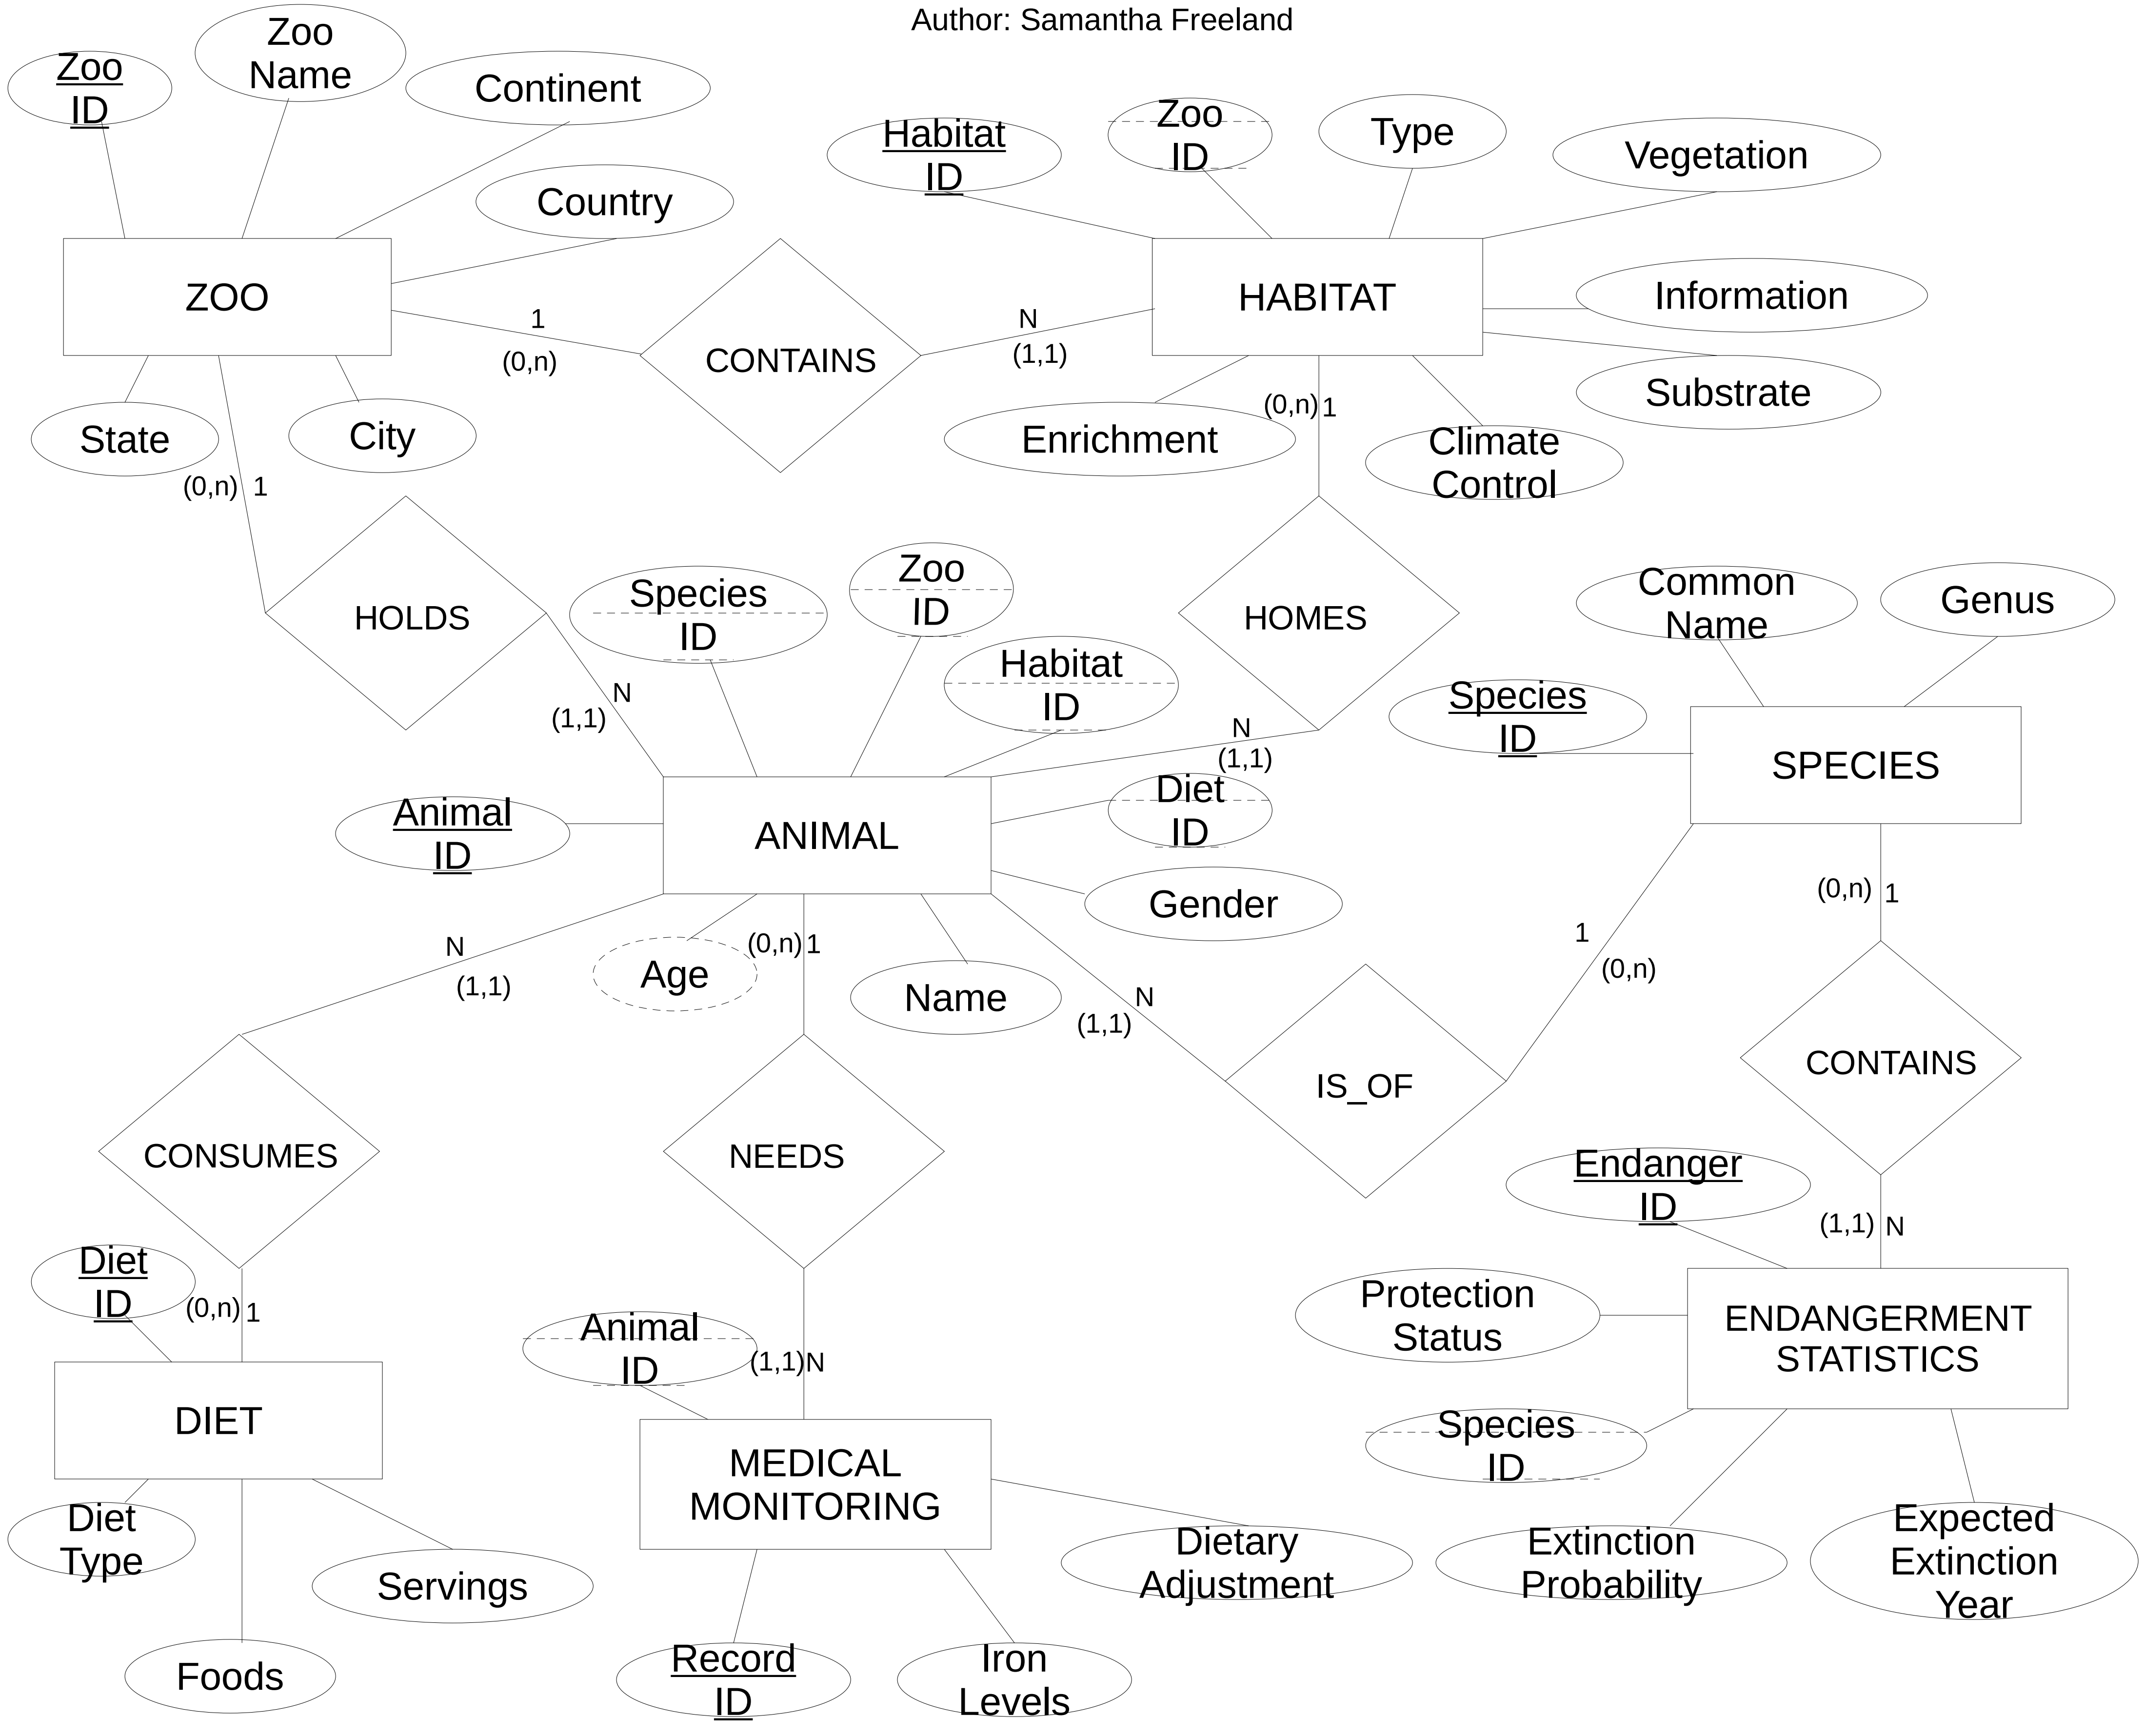
ZOOKEEPER DATABASE
Author: Samantha Freeland



Assumptions:

Min-Max:

ZOOS - ANIMAL: It is possible for a Zoo to exist without any Animals. A Zoo can have multiple Animals.

ANIMAL - SPECIES: Every Animal must be associated with exactly 1 Species.

ZOOS - HABITAT: A Zoo can have multiple Habitats.It is possible for a Zoo to exist without any Habitats.

HABITAT - ANIMAL: Each Habitat can exist without any Animal. Each Habitat can house multiple Animals. Every Animal must be associated with exactly 1 Habitat.

ANIMAL - DIET: Every Animal must have at least 1 Diet. Each Diet can be used for multiple Animals.

DIET - FOODS: Each Diet must consist of at least 1 Food. Every Food can be included in multiple Diets.

ANIMAL - MEDICAL MONITORING: Each Animal can have 0 or more Medical Monitoring records. Every Medical Monitoring record must be associated with exactly 1 Animal.

MEDICAL MONITORING - ANIMAL: Every Medical Monitoring record must have exactly 1 Animal.

SPECIES - ENDANGERMENT STATS: Every Species must have at least 1 Endangerment Statistic. Each Species can have multiple Endangerment Stats.

ENDANGERMENT STATS - SPECIES: Each Endangerment Stat must be linked to exactly 1 Species.

Cardinality:

ZOOS contains up to N ANIMAL

ZOOS contains up to N HABITAT

ANIMAL must belong to exactly 1 SPECIES

Each SPECIES can have multiple ANIMALS

ANIMALS can have MEDICAL MONITORING records

Each MEDICAL MONITORING record must be associated with exactly 1 ANIMAL

Each DIET must have at least 1 FOOD

Each ENDANGERMENT STAT must be linked to exactly 1 SPECIES

Derived Attrinute:

ANIMAL.Age = Floor(CurrentDate() - ANIMAL.DOB) / 365